Preacher – Neil Shepherd

Reading – Acts 7:17-47

Main message of this talk in one sentence: The silence of the desert (or wilderness) is as formational and foundational in our lives as the visible activity of God.

Main points –

For further thought and prayer –

1. Have you got a favourite journey? Are you a 'get there' type person or do you enjoy the journey and enjoy a bit of a detour on the way?
2. What is God saying, or doing with you at the moment? Can you describe the current season, or journey, you are in, or on, with God?
3. You may feel like you are in a wilderness season at the moment, if not, do you recognise a previous season like this. What did God do with you in this time?
4. Do you recognise wilderness seasons from other bible characters: Abraham, Joseph, David, Apostle Paul etc. What did God do with them during these times?
5. Is there particular areas of life that God is asking you to surrender to Him at the moment?
6. Take time to pray for each other, asking God if there are specific words of encouragement for each other in whatever season people are in.
